AWARD MESSAGE

Carl is an amazing innovator that brings well thought out solutions and follows through with execution. Without his help the Data Rights Tracking System (DRTS) would not be what it is today. He provided a platform solution that met very tight budget constraints and business requirements. He also provided resources to help develop application logic and UIs. Carl routinely went above and beyond to ensure the project succeeded. His input is always valuable and he is a true joy to work with. Thank you Carl!
